Progress Announces Winners of the Progress Sitefinity 2017 Website of the Year Awards

April 18, 2018

Seventeen winners worldwide honored for the best in website creativity, design, user experience, functionality and overall presentation

BEDFORD, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 18, 2018-- Progress (NASDAQ: PRGS), the leading provider of application development and deployment technologies, today announced the winners of its annual Progress® Sitefinity™ Website of the Year Awards. Since their inception, the awards have been recognizing websites powered by the Progress Sitefinity solution for creativity, design, user experience, functionality and overall website presentation. Winners were selected based on the highest number of votes received during the public voting process.

This year, 51 websites developed using Progress Sitefinity were nominated across 17 categories: Automotive & Transportation, Consumer Goods & Services, Banking, Financial Services, Government, Healthcare, Manufacturing, Education, Real Estate & Construction, Services, Technology, Tourism & Hospitality, Food & Beverages, Associations, Non-Profit, Multisite and Graphic Design.

The 2017 Website of the Year Awards winners were selected in two phases. First, an internal Progress jury shortlisted the three best websites per category. After narrowing the field, voting was opened to the community at large via email and social media, and the finalists with the highest number of votes were appointed the category winners.

With more than 6,000 votes cast, the results are as follows:

- Automotive & Transportation: Aston Martin, implemented by POSSIBLE
- Consumer Goods & Services: PMI, implemented by Emakina Group
- Banking: DSK Bank, implemented by Studio X
- Financial Services: IMG, implemented by IMG
- Government: Cuyahoga County, implemented by Americaneagle.com
