RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. Please carefully consider the risk factors described under the heading “Risk Factors” in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended February 28, 2006, which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider these risks as well as the other risk factors and information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus. The risks and uncertainties we have described are not the only ones we face. Additional risks and uncertainties of which we are unaware or that we currently deem immaterial may also have a material adverse effect on our business, operations, revenues, net income and future prospects. If any of these risks materializes, the trading price of our common stock could fall and you might lose all or part of your investment.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus and any supplements to this prospectus may contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements about our future financial performance, business operations, product development and other plans. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may,” “will,” “could,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expects,” “projects,” “predicts,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes” and similar words or phrases. Forward-looking statements are merely our current predictions of future events. These statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from our predictions. Important factors that could cause actual events to vary from our predictions include those described under the heading “Risk Factors,” as well as those stated in our other SEC filings incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

Because of these risks and uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of the document in which they are presented. We undertake no obligation to update our forward-looking statements to reflect new information or developments.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale by the selling shareholders of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The selling shareholders acquired the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus from us in connection with our acquisition of Actional Corporation. We issued the shares of common stock to the selling shareholders pursuant to the terms of an agreement and plan of merger dated as of January 18, 2006 among us, Actional and certain other parties. In the merger agreement, we agreed to register for resale the shares of common stock issued to the selling shareholders. The merger agreement contains various representations, warranties and covenants, and the selling shareholders, together with certain other former shareholders of Actional, agreed to indemnify us for breaches of those representations, warranties and covenants. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, a portion of the shares of common stock beneficially owned by the selling shareholders was deposited with an escrow agent pursuant to the terms of an escrow agreement dated as of January 20, 2006. The shares shown as beneficially owned by the selling shareholders in the following table include the shares subject to the escrow agreement. Shares subject to the escrow agreement cannot be sold by the selling shareholders until released to them by the escrow agent. The shares of common stock covered by this prospectus have been validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable.

The following table provides information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling shareholders as of April 26, 2006 and upon completion of the sale of all the shares being registered. For purposes of this table, we have assumed that the selling shareholders will sell all of the shares being offered by this prospectus. The shares being offered may be offered or sold by the selling shareholders or their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest.

For purposes of the following table, beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC. Under these rules, shares of our common stock issuable under options, warrants or other rights that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days after April 26, 2006 are deemed outstanding and are included in the number of shares beneficially owned by a person or entity named in the table and are used to compute the percentage ownership of that person or entity. These shares are not, however, deemed outstanding for computing the percentage ownership of any other person or entity. The inclusion of shares listed as beneficially owned does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership. We have calculated the percentage beneficially owned based upon 41,076,218 shares of common stock outstanding as of April 26, 2006.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the shares covered by this prospectus on behalf of the selling shareholders. The selling shareholders may offer and sell the shares covered by this prospectus from time to time in one or more transactions. The term “selling shareholder” includes pledgees, donees, transferees and other successors-in-interest who may acquire shares through a pledge, gift, partnership distribution or other non-sale related transfer from any selling shareholder. The selling shareholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale. They may sell shares on one or more exchanges, through the Nasdaq National Market, in the over-the-counter market or in privately negotiated transactions at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at fixed prices, at varying prices determined at the time of the sale or at negotiated prices. These transactions include:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer attempts to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction (including crosses in which the same broker acts as agent for both sides of the transaction);
- exchange or over-the-counter distributions in accordance with the rules of the exchange or the Nasdaq National Market;
- a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law. In connection with distributions of the shares or otherwise, the selling shareholders may:
- sell the shares short and deliver the shares to close out short positions;
- enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which require the delivery to them of shares covered by this prospectus, which they may in turn resell;
- enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume; and
- loan or pledge shares to broker-dealers or other financial institutions, and the broker-dealers or other financial institutions may in turn resell the shares so loaned or, upon a default, resell the pledged shares.

The selling shareholders may also sell any shares under Rule 144 rather than with this prospectus if the sale meets the requirements of that rule.

In effecting sales, the selling shareholders may engage broker-dealers or agents, who may in turn arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the selling shareholders and/or from the purchasers of shares for whom the broker-dealers may act as agents or to whom they sell as principal, or both. The compensation to a particular broker-dealer may be in excess of customary commissions. To our knowledge, there is currently no plan, arrangement or understanding between any selling shareholder and any broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of any shares by the selling shareholders.

The selling shareholders, any broker-dealers or agents and any participating broker-dealers that act in connection with the sale of the shares covered by this prospectus may be “underwriters” under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), with respect to those shares and will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of that act. Any profit that the selling shareholders realize, and any compensation that any broker-dealer or agent may receive in connection with any sale, including any profit realized on resale of shares acquired as principal, may constitute underwriting discounts and commissions. If the selling shareholders are deemed to be underwriters, the selling shareholders may be subject to certain liabilities under statutes including, but not limited to, Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

Table of Contents

The securities laws of some states may require the selling shareholders to sell the shares in those states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. These laws may also require that we register or qualify the shares for sale in those states unless an exemption from registration and qualification is available and the selling shareholders and we comply with that exemption. In addition, we have advised the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling shareholders and their affiliates. Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares and the ability of any person to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares.

If a selling shareholder notifies us that the selling shareholder has entered into any material arrangement with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution, over-the-counter distribution or secondary distribution, or a purchase by a broker or dealer, we will file any necessary supplement to this prospectus to disclose:

- the number of shares involved in the arrangement;
- the terms of the arrangement, including the names of any broker-dealers or agents who purchase shares, as required;
- the proposed selling price to the public;
- any discount, commission or other underwriting compensation;
- the place and time of delivery for the shares being sold;
- any discount, commission or concession allowed, reallocated or paid to any dealers; and
- any other material terms of the distribution of shares.

In addition, if a selling shareholder notifies us that a donee, pledgee, transferee or other successor-in-interest of the selling shareholder intends to sell more than 500 shares, we will file a supplement to this prospectus.

The selling shareholders will pay any underwriting discounts and commissions, any expenses incurred by the selling shareholders for brokerage, accounting, tax or legal services, and any other expenses incurred by the selling shareholders in disposing of the shares. We will pay the expenses we have incurred in connection with preparing and filing the registration statement, this prospectus and any supplements to this prospectus, complying with securities or blue sky laws and listing the shares on the Nasdaq National Market. The selling shareholders may indemnify any broker-dealer or agent that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

In the merger agreement, the selling stockholders agreed, severally and not jointly, to indemnify us against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the Securities Act, with respect to the information provided by them to us and with respect to their compliance with the Securities Act.

Table of Contents

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers and control persons pursuant to provisions of law, our articles of organization or by-laws, an agreement or otherwise, we have been informed that in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Our common stock trades on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "PRGS."

- (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
- (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than for the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
